Happy Father's Day!

Dear Members and Friends,

June 1, 2006

Invite your friends to our Berliner Abend dinner-dance on Saturday, June 17, 2006. Music by the Bluebirds Band. A great dinner will be served. Berliner Abend is always a lot of fun but we will surely miss Juergen Hapke, our Berliner. Make your reservation with Lucy Kiwitz (818) 848-1094 or Theresa Berauer (818) 784-8812 and be sure to mail your check to the clubhouse.

IMPORTANT! The club election meeting will be held Friday, June 9, 2006 at 8:00 p.m. All paid members are requested to attend. Please nominate yourself for one of the board positions or ask a member in good standing who agrees to run. Nominations will be welcome at the meeting. Your input for future activities and needs of the club are very important. The number one activity is to support our soccer teams; number two our dances do we want as many as we have now? Golf? Is the interest still there? Frank Niesner has scheduled the last game unless more people participate. Frank has been doing a great job scheduling all of the golf tournaments. Maybe other activities would be in order. Please let us know. German style sandwiches and champagne will be served as always.

Soccer: Sports Director Albert Zerhusen reports that the First Team will play the play-off game this Sunday, June 4 in Griffith Park at 11:45 a.m. All are welcome to watch the game. The over 55-year-olds played in the Wanderpokal winning two games, tying one, and losing one. The Old timers are doing very good winning most of their games.

World Cup 2006: Every one is invited to come to the clubhouse for opening day June 9, 2006. Bring your friends and neighbors. The official opening will start at 8:00 a.m. with the first game Germany vs. Costa Rica starting at 9:00 a.m., and the second game Poland vs. Ecuador will follow. Fred Werner arranged for us to have a new larger screen / set up.

Golf: The next golf tournament will be held on June 8, 2006 at the Brookside Golf Course, 1133 N. Rosemont Ave., Pasadena, CA 91103 with Tee time at 10:00 a.m. The golfing fee and cart is $56.00. Afterwards Bob and Maria Berger invite us to their bowling alley. If interested, call Frank Niesner at (818) 612-8494 (cell), (805) 778-0924.

Welcome new members: Timoteo Preciado and player Alberto Schroth.
